NOTIFICATION

The 10th July 2006

No.11874-IWE(II)6/2006/PR.—Whereas the minimum features of Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme stipulated in Schedule-1 of the National Rural Employment Guarantee Act (Para. 8) provide for seven working hours and the Operational Guidelines issued under the Act prescribe for a District Schedule of Rate based on seven working hours, it is decided to revise the outturn by reducing the same per day per person in common Standard Schedule of Rate (SSR) by 1/8th i.e. out-turn in respect of all items will be multiplied by a factor 0.875 (7/8th) to get the revised out-turn per day per person. In order to bring about parity with the common Standard Schedule of Rate wherein the items have been fixed for 8 working hours in a day. This is issued in pursuance of the recommendation of the high level committee meeting taken up by APC-cum-ACS on 28-06-2006 with the aim of carrying out the statutory provisions of the NREGA and Operational Guidelines issued by MORD, Government of India there under.

This will come into effect from the date of notification and will be applicable to implementation of NREGA works either through PRIs or through agencies of line departments and other executing agencies as stipulated in the Operational Guidelines.
