PART-IIB

CONTRACT FARMING

24-S. Registration of Contract Farming Sponsor- (1) Every person intending to enter into marketing activities as a Contract Farming Sponsor within any market area of the State, shall make an application to the concerned Market Committee for registration in Form XIV and shall deposit a sum of Rs.2,000/- (Rupees two thousand) only as registration fee for the purpose.

(2) Every such application for registration shall be in duplicate and shall be accompanied by:—

(i) A Demand Draft of Rs.2, 000/- in favour of the Market Committee drawn on any Nationalized / Co-operative Bank payable at its Headquarters, and

(ii) Passport size photograph of the applicant or the person authorized along with the following particulars-

(a) Name of the applicant or authorized person,

(b) Place and particulars of business for which registration is required, and

(c) Such other information as may be required.

(3) A copy of the application for registration along with all its enclosures shall simultaneously be furnished by the applicant to the Director along with application in Form XV addressed to him seeking clearance of Government for such registration.

(4) The Director shall examine the application and submit his report to the Government with specific recommendation for consideration within 15 days from the date of receipt of the application. The Government may issue orders giving clearance for the registration of the Contract Farming Sponsor to take up Contract Farming in the concerned Regulated Market Committee(s) area and intimate this fact to the Director and Regulated Market Committee(s) concerned in Form XVI.

(5) The Regulated Market Committee, thereupon, shall register the Contract Farming Sponsor in the Register of Contract Farming Sponsors maintained in Form XVII and issue a certificate to each successful applicant in Form XVIII.

(6) Application for annual renewal of registration shall be made by the Contract Farming Sponsor in Form XIX at least 30 days before the expiry of registration and the applicant shall deposit a sum of Rs.1, 000/- as renewal fee which if not applied for within the stipulated time, may be considered only on payment of a fine of Rs.15/- for each day of delay:

Provided that no application for renewal of registration shall be entertained after the expiry of 30 days from the date of expiry of registration or renewal and same shall be treated as a case for fresh registration.

(7) If registration or renewal is not granted for reasons, other than non-compliance of requirement of the conditions under the Act, the registration or renewal fee, as the case may be, shall be refunded after retaining 5% of the fee paid towards administrative charges.

(8) In case a Contract Farming Sponsor intends taking up contract farming in more than one Market Committee Area, he shall make separate applications for registration in each such Market Committee.

24 T. Contract Farming Agreement— (1) The Contract Farming Sponsor shall enter into an Agreement in Form XX with every Contract Farming Producer and shall furnish copies of each such Agreement to the Regulated Market Committee. The copies of Agreements shall be kept on record by the Secretary of the concerned Market Committee in a Register maintained for the purpose in Form XXI.

(2) The Agreements for Contract Farming may be seasonal or annual. All seasonal or annual Agreements shall be entered into before sowing of the crops. In case of horticultural tree crops, the time of Agreements may be at the stage of flowering, [or at any stage deemed appropriate by the parties to the agreement].

(3) The Contract Farming Agreement shall contain a description of the farm, land survey number, specification of farm produce, specification of quality, specification of commodity contracted, crop delivery Agreement, insurance coverage etc. as well as details of the price to be paid for the produce indicating the mode of payment to be made to the Contract Farming Producer.

(4) The Contract Farming Sponsor shall be responsible for taking possession of the produce at the farm or at an agreed place after correct weighment and payment duly issuing a Purchase Bill. He shall obtain the signature of the producer on the Purchase Bill in token of having received the payment and one copy of the Purchase Bill shall be submitted to the Market Committee in whose area the land is situated. Incidental expenditure due to handling, loading, unloading, weighment, stitching, including cost of containers shall be borne by the Contract Farming Sponsor.

(5) The registering authority shall examine the Agreement and ensure that the interests of the Contract Farming Producers are protected and if in his opinion such an Agreement shall result in exploitation of the Contract Farming Producer or is otherwise detrimental to the interests of the Contract Farming Producer, the registering authority may refuse to register the Agreement, after giving an opportunity to all the parties to the Agreement or any other party whose interest will be affected by the Agreement of being heard.

(6) A decision to register or to refuse registration of any Contract Farming Agreement shall as far as practicable be taken within a period of 15 days from the date of submission of the agreement for registration.

24-U. (1) Dispute and their redressal—All petitions seeking a redressal of disputes under sub-section (3) of section 6D of the Act, shall be in writing and such petitions shall be accompanied by-

- (4) Such other statement or records as may be necessary to support the claim;

(2) Verification of petitions —Every dispute petition shall be verified and signed by the party or by one of the parties submitting the petition and shall state the date on which and the place at which it was signed.

(3) Written Statement— The defendant may, at or before the first hearing or within such time as the Director or other officers hearing the dispute may permit, present a written statement of his defence.

(4) Fees for filing of dispute— A fee of Rs.10.00 on each petition shall be paid by way of affixing of court fee stamp.

(5) Procedure for settlement of dispute—

(1) The Director may, on receipt of a reference of a dispute under sub-section (3) of Section 6D, —

- (a) decide the dispute himself, or
- (b) transfer it for disposal to any person who has been vested by the Government with powers in that behalf.

(2) The Director may withdraw any reference transferred under sub-rule (1) and decide it himself or transfer the same to another person so vested with the powers.

(6) The Director or any other person to whom the dispute is referred for decision under this rule may, pending the decision of the dispute, make such interlocutory orders as he may deem necessary in the interest of justice.

(7) In the proceedings, the Director or the person to whom the dispute is transferred or referred for disposal, shall fix the date, hour and the place of hearing of dispute and issue notice to the parties concerned at least 7 days before the date fixed for hearing of the dispute.

(8) Award or Decision— The Director or any person deciding the dispute shall, record a brief memorandum of the evidence of the parties and witnesses and upon the evidence so recorded and after consideration of any documentary evidence produced by the parties, a decision or award, as the case may be, shall be given on principles of justice and equity within 30 days from the date of reference. The decision shall be communicated to all the parties concerned immediately.

(9) Consequence of non-appearance of parties-

(1) When neither party appears, and the case of dispute is called for hearing then the case shall be dismissed.

(2) Where the defendant appears and the petitioner does not appear and the case is called for hearing the case shall be dismissed.

(3) When a case is dismissed for non-appearance of the petitioner, he may apply to set aside the dismissal order on showing sufficient cause for his previous non-appearance within a period of 30 days from the date of passing of the order.

(4) When the petitioner appears and the defendant does not appear and the case is called for hearing, the hearing may proceed ex parte provided the summons were duly served on the defendant.

(5) When in any case in which a decision is passed ex parte against the defendant he may apply for an order to set aside and upon his satisfying that he was prevented by sufficient cause from appearing when the case was called for hearing, an order setting aside the decision as against the defendant shall be passed and a date shall be appointed for hearing of the case.

(10) Disposal of Records—The original records of the proceedings after the decision has been delivered shall be kept in such place in such manner as the Director may direct, and any document or record tendered by a party in any dispute may, on application be returned to the party after the disposal of the appeal, if any, or after the period of appeal is over.

(11) Certified Copies— A copy of the decision or award shall, on application be given to a party by the Director or any person authorized by the Director duly certified on payment of fees of Rs.10.00 for each page or part thereof within 7 days from the date of application.

24-V. Filing and disposal of appeal under sub-section (4) of Section 6D—

(1) An appeal under section 6D shall be presented by the appellant in person during office hours or sent by registered post.

(2) Every appeal shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the order against which appeal is preferred.

(3) Every appeal shall, —

(i) be typewritten and legible;

(ii) specify the name and the address of the appellant and also the name and address of the opposite party;

(iii) state by whom the order against which the appeal is preferred, was made;

(iv) clearly state the grounds on which the appeal is made;

(v) state precisely the relief which the appellant claims; and

(vi) give the date of the order appealed against.

(4) On receipt of the appeal, the appellate authority shall endorse on it the date of its receipt.

(5) If the appellate authority finds that the appeal presented does not conform to any of the provisions, of the Act / Rules it shall make note on the appeal to that effect and may call upon the appellant to rectify the defect within such period as it may fix.

(6) After the defect is rectified, the appellate authority shall fix the date, hour and place of hearing of the appeal and issue notice to the parties concerned in the form specified by it at least 7 days before the date fixed for hearing of the appeal.

(7) If the appellant fails to rectify the defects within the fixed period, the appellate authority may dismiss the appeal.

(8) Any appeal not filed within the prescribed time limit may be admitted when the appellant satisfies the appellate authority that he had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within such period.

(9) On the date so fixed, the appellate authority shall go through the relevant papers, hear the appellant and defendants, if present and pass order on the appeal.

(10) The appellate authority may, at its discretion, adjourn to any other day hearing of any appeal at any stage.

(11) When the hearing of the appeal is completed, the appellate authority shall announce its judgment forthwith or may reserve it for a subsequent date in which case, the judgment shall be communicated to the parties.

24-W. Award of Costs— The Director and the appellate authority may award any costs to the defaulting party in any dispute if he finds that the dispute or the appeal has been filed with the sole intention of using the process to harass the opposite party or if the circumstances of the case so warrants otherwise.

24-X. Annual Account—A Contract Farming Sponsor shall submit annual accounts in Form XXII before 30th June every year to the Secretary of the Market Committee concerned in respect of all transactions in respect of the contract farming activities undertaken by him during the previous financial year”.
