NOTIFICATION

The 28th December 2012

Sub—Decentralisation of procurement and supply of office stationery

No. 42148—FIN-ES3-BT-0021/12/F.—Government in Finance Department after careful consideration have been pleased to dispense with the existing arrangement of centralized procurement and supply of office stationery by the Government Press to different Government offices. The stationery procurement wing of the Government Press will continue to handle only the printing and supply of the Government Diary and Government Calendar.

The Government offices are allowed to procure their requirement of stationery locally following the prescribed procurement process and procedure with effect from 1st April 2013. Allocation of funds for office stationery will be made demandwise under a separate unit from the financial year 2013-14.

By order of the Governor

A. K. MISHRA

Special Secretary to Government
